

How can we ensure that the water used in AI systems and data centres is sourced responsibly and does not contribute to water scarcity in upcoming years?

Posted by u/hewfew • 0 points • 3 comments

Asking questions to help shift the perspective on how we use and care for water resources, particularly in the context of AI and its growing impact on our environment.

Comments

u/speed_of_stupdity • 1 points • 2024-04-11 03:03 UTC

Pass legislation that taxes data centers to pay for desalination plants.

u/BlowjobPete • 2 points • 2024-04-11 02:47 UTC

A data center doesn't need to use water to cool, there are plenty of data centers that run AI and use regular refrigeration systems.

u/BSye-34 • 2 points • 2024-04-11 02:46 UTC

ethics is pretty low on the list of priorities for most companies