

How bad is the environmental impact of c.ai?

I'm trying to find reasons that I actually care about to NOT go back to the app. I grew dependent on the app months ago, deleted my account because of that but I miss the life I've built for myself there. I'm a loser irl, so...
I heard that c.ai impact is even worse than chatgpt's, is this true?

well AI in general in the United States is pretty horrible because it takes so much water that local communities around AI plants can go hours or days without water; though we do have several options such as solar power or water recycling that we could possibly use in the future but because of the current Administration it may not happen anytime soon.

the water used goes back into the coolant flow

Not really but if you wanna like talk with chatgpt then you can create your own characters and talk with them but yes c.ai is a bit bad because of the rules (EVEN THO HALF OF THE CHARACTERS WE TALK TO ARE LITERALLY EVIL IN THE MOST DISGUSTING WAYS)
