

The pyramids were free energy power plants and the reason were finding out right now is because AI needs tons of energy

In the last couple months there have been a bunch of scans of giza finding underground tunnels and areas underneath the pyramids. There's enough evidence to show the pyramids were used to generate energy using the materials the pyramids were made out of, underground water ways etc. Nikola Tesla pulled a lot of his techniques from the pyramids specifically and he was successful. The reason that this is all coming out right now is because AI is going to need insane amounts of energy to power and they know they're going to need more than we can generate using normal techniques. Entire city size buildings are being built to house the ai servers. So they are going to utilize free energy plants like the pyramids to power them.

They've known forever but continued to hide it from the masses so they could bleed us of our money but now they have no choice.

My guess is free energy is used to power the DUMBs (deep underground military bases).

Good post. Unfortunately, with what happened today, nobody will pay attention or discuss this.

Seems like it be far easier to just tap the Eiffel Tower and/or the St. Louis Gateway Arch

Or reverse engineer a Tesla Coil aka Ziggurat aka The Tower of Babel

Or the stolen Egyptian Obelisks in Rome, Italy

The Veil of Maya is Spiritual psy-ops

The demiurge is a cruel tyrant, indeed

SS: the pyramids were powerplants harnessing free energy from the planet naturally and the information has been hidden from us. The recent scans finding underground areas is the slow leak of this info so they can eventually build them to fulfill the massive amount of power needed to power the Ai servers being built right now.
