I've been thinking about how many years I have left as an artist for a while now. So making these was cathartic. Expressing our hatred is also a valid use of human art I guess! I wasn't sure which flair to use. Sorry if it's breaking any rules!

Ok I'm seeing cool shirts but what about enamel pins so you can wear them on anything and any day

That would be a cool idea too. Enamel pins are a bit expensive to make though so maybe when I have more saved up!
