

Do AI bro's even like the Environment?

Posted by u/atlasfrompaladins • 0 points • 10 comments

I saw a post a few hours ago in the Anti AI sub, you know the one. And out of all the comments I was reading through 1 comment that the OP responded to made me wanna make this. He said something along of the lines of "Do pro's even care about the environment?*" They do, we do, it's just not everyone is eco friendly and using recyclable materials or ridding electrical bikes ya know?

Not saying we shouldn't try to lessen the effects of by products and what not, it's just that... Telling people to go fuck themselves, in a post will not make them pro human, or pro environmental or whatever. Insulting people is not gonna make them switch sides.

Like how would the OP feel if I called his mother a whore for not using AI... Would that make him, or his mother more practical to use it? Would it?

I maintain what I say about AI. If it was so bad for the environment then why does the Environmental Protection Agency use it for a ton of different things?

A steak is worth a thousand AI generations.

If you care about the environment and you want to make a dent in your energy use, stop eating meat, use less AC, and use public transports.

I really shouldn't, I've been allergic to it my whole life, but yes I do.

The environment.

Why would I care about like something that is trying to always kill us and destroy everything we make and build as well as all life, even without humans possibly encouraging it? Not that I even believe in Global Warming, after all,

My environmental contributions are continuing to drive my old hybrid even though it's a shitbox and buying the almost out of date meat at the grocery store to reduce food waste

Once I can afford it I want to put solar panels on my home.

But that entire sub is a black hole of wasted power and they complain about us.

Ah but don't you get it? Facts like this don't matter cause AI is evil so anything it does is 10X as worse! So even if you bring this shit up to the Anti's it won't matter.
