

r/datacenter

Wärtsilä continues growth in the data center segment with a 507 MW order in the US, offering engines as a reliable power solution

Posted by u/Riticx • • 0 points • 0 comments

The Finnish company Wärtsilä received a 507 MW order to supply power to a new data center in the U.S. Wärtsilä will deliver 27 18V50SG engines, which will run on natural gas.

Comments